Chapter 1 by thelastunicorn

You'll never know what you'll get before it comes to you. She only believed that, until it happened to her. It was something that she was to cherish forever. Something that touched her heart. One of the only things that made her happy when she was sad. And it all happened when he gave her The Masterpiece in Purple Marker.

Chapter 2 by Alayna Ostrum

It was glorious. A most amazing work of art. "The Masterpiece" was quite an appropriate name, for how could you say anything less about this- this glorious, amazing, wonderful thing? And the purple, oh yes. How could one not compliment the layer, intricate design carefully carved out by the Purple Marker?

Chapter 3 by jsdmlakld

For when Reid's love reached her through this letter, she was forever changed. The purple marker masterpiece was a symbol of their passion and would forever state their lives together. Though many may go their separate ways, the letters would burn deeply into her heart and the comic sans would mark her memories.

Chapter 4 by Dilemma

I couldn't really put my finger on it... Why did I love it so much? Was the shade of purple just particularly attractive or was it the attention to detail. But it started getting scary after I put it up in my room.

Chapter 5 by thelastunicorn

But I did love it. It was to be the last thing I had that represented our friendship. We had been great friends, until it just stopped. It was an abrupt stop too. One day everything was great and regular and then the next day he didn't talk to me. I still don't know why (well, I at least didn't hear it from his own mouth), and I still feel guilty. I feel guilty everyday for something that I don't know that I did wrong.
